Daffodils or Narcissi

NO GARDEN is complete without Daffodils or Narcissi. They are among the most beautiful of the Spring flowers and if varieties are carefully selected and planting is made in both sunny and shaded locations, blooms may be had from very early spring until the middle of May. We are listing here a large number of the better known standard varieties. If you are interested in other or newer kinds, or in smaller and less expensive sizes of bulbs we will be pleased to give you our prices.

YELLOW TRUMPET DAFFODILS.

In this variety the trumpet is as long or longer than the perianth segments.

KING ALFRED—This is the finest of the large yellow Daffodils. It is deep, golden yellow with broad, massive perianth and beautifully frilled trumpet, the flowers borne on long sturdy stems. This is the variety used extensively by florists throughout the country. It is tall and stately and truly a King in the garden.

Price per dozen, $1.25, per 100, $8.00.

TRESSERVE—One of the outstanding of the new giant trumpets; deep canary yellow with the perianth a lighter yellow than the trumpet. The flowers are very large. A fine show flower.

Per dozen, $1.25; per 100, $8.25.

EMPEROR—This is a well known Daffodil of proven merit, good for both forcing and bedding. The perianth is deep primrose, the trumpet yellow.

Per dozen, $1.00, per 100, $7.00.

PACIFIC SPUR—One of the earliest of the trumpets. The flowers are a uniform golden yellow. This variety makes a beautiful pot of flowers for the house if lifted from the garden and put into pots when the buds begin to show.

Per dozen, $1.00; per 100, $7.00.

BI-COLOR TRUMPET DAFFODILS.

In these the perianth is white or lighter than the trumpet.

VAN WAVEREN'S GIANT—Has a flower of immense size. The trumpet is deep golden yellow and opens very wide. The outer petals of the pale yellow perianth are very broad, the inner ones slightly twisted.

Each, 15 cents; per dozen, $1.50.

SPRING GLORY—Broad white perianth, and a long chrome yellow trumpet. This is one of the loveliest of the Daffodils.

Per dozen, $1.00; per 100, $7.00.

EMPRESS—A beautiful and popular bi-color, flowering later than King Alfred. The perianth is creamy white with a trace of gold down the center of each petal; the trumpet, creamy yellow.

Per dozen, 85 cents; per 100, $6.00.

GLORY OF SASSENHEIM—Large flowers with a creamy white perianth and yellow trumpet. It flowers about the same time as King Alfred.

Per dozen, $1.00; per 100, $7.00.

VICTORIA—A large, well formed flower with creamy white perianth and clear yellow trumpet. It is fine for growing in the house as well as for planting in the garden.

Per dozen, $1.00; per 100, $7.00.

PRINCEPS—One of the daintier of the bi-colors. The petals of the perianth are creamy yellow and slightly twisted, the trumpet clear yellow.

Per dozen, $1.00; per 100, $7.00.

NARCISSUS POETICUS.

Poet's Narcissus, white petals, red, or yellow and red cup.

NARCISSUS POETICUS RECURVUS—The standard Poeticus sometimes called Pheasant's Eye. The perianth is pure white reflexing slightly. The cup yellow edged with scarlet. Very sweet-scented. Fine for mass planting.

Per dozen, 70 cents; per 100, $5.00.

WHITE TRUMPET DAFFODILS.

Varieties with a white perianth and white or nearly white trumpet, including pink or apricot trumpets.

BEERSHEBA—This is a very large, all-white Daffodil, the most outstanding of the White Trumpets. It is of sturdy growth and a vigorous bloomer, and should be in every collection of fine Narcissus.

Each, $2.00; 3 for $5.00.

MRS. E. H. KRELAGE—This Daffodil is called the White King Alfred. The perianth is creamy white, the trumpet soft primrose gracefully curved back. This variety has no rival at flower shows.

Each, 20 cents; per dozen, $2.00.

SOFLATARE (Giant Leeds)—A large, bold flower with broad, overlapping white petals, and creamy primrose trumpet.

Each, 20 cents; per dozen, $2.00.

INCOMPARABILIS NARCISSUS.

The cup or crown measures from one-third to nearly the length of the perianth segments.

SIR WATKIN—One of the largest of the medium crowned varieties. The perianth is primrose yellow, the cup deep yellow.

Per dozen, $1.00; per 100, $7.00.

LUCINUS—One of the best golden yellow short trumpets. A well formed flower of distinct type.

Per dozen, $1.35; per 100, $10.00.

TORCH—This is a large star-shaped flower with yellow perianth and a large orange cup edged with a deeper orange. A vigorous grower.

Per dozen, $1.25; per 100, $9.00.

RED CROSS (Giant Incomparabilis)—This is a fine exhibition variety having exceptionally large, strong flowers opening flat, with broad overlapping petals of soft yellow. The cup is deep orange on the rim shading to deep yellow in the center.

Each, 30 cents; per dozen, $3.00.

BARRI NARCISSI.

In the Barri class the cup measures less than one-third the length of the perianth segments.

FIRETAIL—An exquisite Daffodil with a broad creamy white perianth and flat crown colored orange and frilled with red-orange. This is a very popular variety.

Each, 30 cents; per dozen, $2.50.

CONSPICUUS—Large, broad spreading perianth of soft yellow, with a short yellow cup edged with scarlet. This Daffodil is especially good for mass planting or naturalizing.

Per dozen, 75 cents; per 100, $5.00.

BATH'S FLAME—A large, long-stemmed scarlet and gold flower, the perianth yellow, the cup deep yellow edged with orange-red.

Each, 15 cents; per dozen, $1.50.

DOUBLE DAFFODILS.

ALBA PLENA ODORATA—A snow-white flower resembling a gardenia. Very fragrant. Blooms very late after most of the other Narcissi are gone.

Per dozen, 85 cents; per 100, $6.00.

GOLDEN PHOENIX—The petals making up the perianth are golden yellow, the double center, yellow and orange combined.

Per dozen, 85 cents; per 100, $6.00.

ORANGE PHOENIX—This Phoenix is similar in form to the Golden Phoenix, the outside petals being a glistening white, the double center white and brilliant orange.

Per dozen, 85 cents; per 100, $6.00.

SULPHUR PHOENIX—This flower, the most delicate in shading of the Phoenixes, is similar in form to the Golden Phoenix, the outside petals creamy white, the center mixed with sulphur yellow.

Per dozen, 85 cents; per 100, $6.00.

TWINK—The finest of the Double Daffodils. Very hardy and free flowering. The petals are alternating soft primrose and clear orange. This is a beautiful flower.

Each, 20 cents; per dozen, $2.00.

VAN ZION—One of the stand-bys in the double class. A large golden yellow flower on a sturdy stem.

Per dozen, 85 cents; per 100, $6.00.

CROCUS

LEEDSI NARCISSI.

The perianth is white, the cup white, cream or lemon yellow or sometimes tinged with pink or apricot.

WHITE LADY—A favorite in this group of Narcissi. White perianth, dainty pale canary cup, delicately scented. Good for naturalizing or massive planting.

Per dozen, 60 cents; per 100, $4.50.

SOLFATAIRE (Giant Leeds)—This variety listed also under the White Trumpets, is a giant flower with broad overlapping pure white perianth and a large crown of creamy primrose.

Each, 20 cents; per dozen, $2.00.

POETAZ NARCISSI.

The Poetaz Narcissi are a bunch-flowered class, vigorous growers and sweet-scented.

CHEERFULNESS—Double flowers growing in clusters. The perianth is creamy white, the centers creamy white and yellow. It is wonderfully fragrant.

Per dozen, $1.25; per 100, $8.00. 7.00

LAURENS KOSTER—Lovely flowers borne in clusters, the perianth pure white, the cups yellow. Very sweet-scented.

Per dozen, $1.00; per 100, $7.00. 6.00

ORANGE CUPS—highly recommended in this group. The color is a soft yellow with an orange cup edged with red.

Each, 15 cents; per dozen, $1.50.

MIXED DAFFODILS.

One of the most effective uses of Daffodils is to naturalize them in quantity in wooded spots, along driveways or among shrubs. The mixture we are offering is made up of at least 10 named varieties. It will contain among others: PRINCEPS, PACIFIC SPUR, GOLDEN PHOENIX, VAN ZION, POETICUS RECURVUS, EMPEROR, SULPHUR PHOENIX, KING ALFRED, VICTORIA, and SULPHUR PHOENIX. These bulbs if left in place for two or three years, will increase each year and produce many lovely flowers.

Mixed Daffodils—Named varieties:

Per 100, $ 5.00.

Per 1000, $40.00.

SCILLA CAMPANULATA

TULIPS.

The Tulip has been a very popular spring flower for many years and there are, therefore, many classifications and many varieties. There are listed in Holland catalogues close to 2,500 different, named Tulips. The Darwins, the most popular of the May-flowering Tulips, named after Charles Darwin, are characterized by clear fresh colors. Their flowers are deep, bowl-shaped, and borne on strong stems, 2 to 3 feet high.

SPECIAL OFFER OF DARWIN TULIPS.

Hand-made mixture, giving you a well-balanced assortment of the best colors and varieties such as: CLARA BUTT, WILLIAM COPELAND, WILLIAM PITT, INGLEScombe YELLOW, and OTHERS.

50 Fine Bulbs for $2.25; 100 for $4.00.

HYACINTHS (Holland Grown)

Little need be said about the beauty of these Dutch Bulbs. They are suitable for bedding and are also favorites for growing indoors in pots, or in pebbles and water.

HYACINTHS—Named varieties in White, Red, Yellow and Blue.

Per dozen, $1.30; per 100, $9.00.

CROCUS BULBS.

The Crocus, like the pussywillow, is a harbinger of spring. There should be a crocus corner in every garden.

YELLOW, PURPLE, WHITE or STRIPED—Named Varieties.

Per dozen, 40 cents; per 100, $3.00.

Mixed: Per dozen, 30 cents; per 100, $2.25.

WE ARE PLEASED TO SEND YOU OUR BULB LIST, and if you have friends interested in flower gardening we will be glad to send one to them on request. Our Bulbs are grown in the ideal, moist climate of Grays Harbor Country, a climate almost identical with that of Holland from where until recent years, most of our bulbs came. We know they are of the finest quality. If for any reason they do not give complete satisfaction, you will do us a favor by advising us of the fact. If you are pleased with them, we would also be glad to hear from you. Our prices are the lowest we can make them considering the high quality of the bulbs. Because of packing and mailing costs we are asking that your orders be for not less than $1.00, cash with order. Please do not order less than six of a kind of those priced by the dozen, six being sold at the dozen rate and 25 at the 100 rate.
